INSTRUCTIONS FOR REVIEWERS

Submitted manuscripts are reviewed for originality, significance, adequacy of documentation, reader interest and composition. Manuscript not submitted according to instructions will be returned to the author for correction prior to beginning the peer review/process. Revised manuscripts are judged on the adequacy of responses to suggestions and criticisms made during the initial review. Each manuscript will be check for technical, epidemiological, statistical, and ethical and language corrections. All parts of accepted manuscripts are subject to editing for scientific accuracy and clarity by the office of the Editor. The editorial board of Asian Journal of Allied Health Sciences holds the right to a final decision of accepting or rejecting any article from publication in the journal, at all stages including the editorial review.

A brief account of minimum requirements by "International Committee of Medical Journal Editors" is given in "ICMJE-Recommendations" link below for assisting the reviewers. However, the full text can be read at www.icmje.org
